* On behalf of the African States and in accordance with rule 72 of the rules of procedure of the Economic and Social Council.

Recalling that in resolution 47/77 of 16 December 1992, the General Assembly took note of the report of the Secretary-General 1/ and requested him to submit a new draft programme of action for examination to the General Assembly at its forty-eighth session,

Having examined the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of the programme of action for the second Decade, 2/

Convinced that it is necessary that the General Assembly should proclaim a third Decade to combat racism and racial discrimination as a means of intensifying international efforts in this field,

Taking into account the progress made towards the building of a democratic and united South Africa not based on racial prejudices,

Emphasizing that it is the responsibility of the Government of South Africa to take all necessary measures to stop immediately the violence in that country and to protect the life and property of all South Africans,

Emphasizing also the need for all parties to cooperate in combating violence and to exercise restraint,

Bearing in mind the declaration on apartheid and its destructive consequences in southern Africa adopted by the General Assembly in resolution S-16/1 of 14 December 1989 and contained in the annex thereto,

Deeply concerned about the prevalence of racism and racial tensions as well as the rising tide of xenophobia,

Stressing the need to continue the coordination of activities undertaken by various United Nations bodies and specialized agencies for the purpose of implementing the programme of action for the second Decade,

1. Declares that all forms of racism and racial discrimination, particularly in their institutionalized forms, such as apartheid or resulting from official doctrines of racial superiority or exclusivity, are among the most serious violations of human rights in the contemporary world and must be combated by all available means;

2. Recommends that the General Assembly at its forty-eighth session should proclaim a third Decade to Combat Racism and Racial Discrimination;

3. Requests the Secretary-General, in preparing the draft programme of action for the Third Decade, to accord the highest priority to activities
